

Bottom Sheet

The Bottom Sheet is a UI component that slides up from the bottom of the screen to reveal additional content or options. It is commonly used to display contextual information, actions, or settings without navigating to a new page.

Status: Design approved Dev done

Last updated: 18 Desember 2024

Documentation: Zeroheight • Storybook Soon

❖ Master component

×

↔ Swappable component

Swap this with your local component you've created.

Title here, max 1 line

Put the description here, make it clear and concise. No more than 3 lines.

Tutup

Lanjutkan

Properties

Variant
Use these 5 predefined content variants according to your needs.

×

Title here, max 1 line

Put the description here, make it clear and concise. No more than 3 lines.

↔ Swappable component

Swap this with your local component you've created.

×

↔ Swappable component

Swap this with your local component you've created.

Title here, max 1 line

Put the description here, make it clear and concise. No more than 3 lines.

×

Title here, max 1 line

Put the description here, make it clear and concise. No more than 3 lines.

×

↔ Swappable component

Swap this with your local component you've created.

×

Title here, max 1 line

Put the description here, make it clear and concise. No more than 3 lines.

Size
Always use the default size (small/mobile), medium size is optional, and this is only for responsive purposes.

×

Title here, max 1 line

Put the description here, make it clear and concise. No more than 3 lines.

Tutup

Lanjutkan

×

Title here, max 1 line

Put the description here, make it clear and concise. No more than 2 lines. Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet.

Tutup

Lanjutkan

Full-screen
Create a full-screen bottom sheet if needed, usually there is scroll interaction in it. Make sure you use it according to the guidelines.

×

Title here, max 1 line